

Health and Safety Policy

Port Kembla Coal Terminal (PKCT) is committed to ensuring an injury free workplace for its employees and visitors and fostering an environment where everyone is committed to working safely and to the health and safety of others.

In support of this commitment, PKCT will:

- Foster a culture where working safely is a natural part of the way we operate.
- Consider all injuries preventable.
- Provide leadership and support to teams in taking on increased responsibility for their own and the safety of others.
- Involve all employees and contractors in the improvement of Occupational Health and Safety performance.
- As a minimum comply with applicable laws, regulations and standards, and where these do not exist, adopt and apply standards that reflect PKCT's commitment to health and safety.
- Manage risk by implementing and regularly reviewing management systems to identify, assess, monitor and control hazards.
